

Pope Francis' Inverted Version of Christianity

One of my Facebook friends, Albigenses Gibson, posted this about Pope Francis. I thought it's very good and something I should share on James Japan.

Pope Francis has voiced his support for people who molest children being openly accepted in mainstream society. Pope Francis has outdone himself this time, putting his Satanic cards on the table in the most shameless way possible as he joins the globalist elites' war against our children.

Pride festival organizers must get over their prejudices and include pedophiles in the LGBTQI+ rainbow community, according to Pope Francis who claims that we must not judge so-called "pedosexuals" who are sexually attracted to children until we have walked a mile in their shoes.

Francis argues that we must retire the word "pedophile" because it stigmatizes those who are sexually attracted to children, and claims that their behavior can be "moral."

Francis is said to be encouraging Pride organizers to follow Old Dominion University professor of sociology Allyn Walker whose book "A Long Dark Shadow: Minor Attracted People and Their Pursuit of Dignity" was written to promote pedophile acceptance.

Walker explained the rationale behind his thoughts while taking questions in a recent livestream.

"I use the term minor-attracted person or MAP in the title and throughout the book for multiple reasons. First of all, I think it's important to use the terminology for groups that members of the group want others to use for them, and MAP advocacy groups like 'Before You Act' have advocated for the use of the term MAP. They've advocated for it primarily because it's less stigmatizing than other terms like pedophile."

Pope Francis' pro-pedophile position has outraged victims of clerical sex abuse, and understandably so. Survivors reacted furiously after Francis refused to promise a "zero tolerance" approach to pedophile priests and the bishops who cover up their crimes as he closed a summit at the Vatican.

Pope Francis' comments caused a storm in the Vatican, but those who have been paying attention to Francis's increasingly evil behavior should not be remotely surprised. This is the pope who kicked off his papacy by declaring the Bible was wrong and evolution and the Big Bang theory were real. This is the pope who urged humanity to put its faith in World Economic Forum founder Klaus Schwab, declaring that he is now more important than Jesus Christ and the man with the plan to restore nature to its position of primacy in the world order. This is the same Pope who takes every opportunity to declare the Biblical corpus needs to be updated by Schwab's godless WEF.

As an Agenda Contributor at the WEF, Pope Francis is fluent in blasphemy and is actively working to subvert Christianity and promote globalist causes.

This is the same pope who threw his weight behind the technocratic mRNA rollout, declaring that Christians who refuse to be injected with the mRNA gene therapy are "heretics" who will be judged harshly by God.

In July, Pope Francis invited former US President Bill Clinton and Alex Soros to meet him at his private residence at the Casa Santa Marta. Ye shall know them by their fruits, according to Matthew 7:16, and the trio spent the afternoon discussing globalist priorities including the need to depopulate the earth.

Pope Francis' inverted version of Christianity is confusing for many, however, the picture becomes clear when you understand who the pontiff is really serving.

Christians have every right to feel deeply betrayed by this pope who broke with centuries of Christian tradition when he told his flock that it is dangerous to have a personal relationship with Jesus.

In 2017, Pope Francis called for a "one world government" and "political authority", arguing that the creation of the one world government is needed to combat issues such as "climate change." Speaking with Ecuador's El Universo newspaper, the Pope said that the United Nations does not have enough power and must be granted full governmental control "for the good of humanity." This includes Americans, he stressed, who according to the pope must be ruled by a world government "for their own good."

Now, Pope Francis is actively defying Biblical scripture by working to create a "one world religion." In 2019, Pope Francis signed a historic covenant with leaders of the world's major faiths, pushing us much closer to a one-world religion, one of the major goals of the New World Order. According to the document produced by Pope Francis and published on the Vatican's official website, all religions must be considered equal, and Islam is as acceptable to God as Christianity.

He then shocked the world by hosting Islamic prayers and Quran recitals in the Vatican and performed a pagan ceremony in a garden at the Vatican. At this point you have to ask yourself, what more could Jorge Bergoglio possibly do to convince the world he was a false prophet? How about broadcasting a ceremony to the entire world, praising Lucifer, heralding his imminent arrival, and following up with a torrent of blasphemous dogma of the Satanic variety?

Pope Francis did not make clear the identity of Lucifer, the Antichrist, however, observers in the Vatican claim the Jesuit pope is referring to himself.

The world is now at a tipping point. A battle is raging for the soul of humanity. The globalists and their techno-communist dreams of authoritarian rule threaten to consume humanity and destroy civilization as we know it.

Pope Francis has made it more than clear whose side he is on. His disgraceful refusal to punish child molesting priests and his shameless support for pedophiles to be accepted within society are the final nails in his coffin. We should keep a very close eye on this Jesuit pope during these critical times.
