The Coronavirus by Bill Hughes. Chapter 5. Ultimate Goals

This is the continuation of Chapter 4. Medical Madman in the Beltway

Fauci pays Wuhan Lab to develop coronavirus in spite of the obvious. You research a virus, and in the process, it leaks out of the laboratory and it spreads through the population all around the world. Like a prophet, you tell Georgetown listeners and the Trump administration that there will be a pandemic during the Trump White House! You proceed full speed ahead knowing full well that the world will be brought to its knees and that 100's of thousands of people will die! Like a medical madman, you go full bore like an insane man because the end justifies the mean. Like Edward Smith aboard the Titanic on that fateful night, you head straight for the icebergs, knowing many will die because your masters have told you this is for the greater glory of the Catholic Church! What kind of a group of men would encourage such insanity?

The following quote gives a historical backdrop to the Jesuits and explains their mentality.

"Throughout Christendom, Protestantism was menaced by formidable foes. The first triumphs of the Reformation past, Rome summoned new forces, hoping to accomplish its destruction. At this time the order of the Jesuits was created, the most cruel, unscrupulous, and powerful of all the champions of popery. Cut off from earthly ties and human interests, dead to the claims of natural affection, reason and conscience wholly silenced, they knew no rule, no tie, but that of their order, and no duty but to extend its power. The gospel of Christ had enabled its adherents to meet danger and endure suffering, undismayed by cold, hunger, toil, and poverty, to uphold the banner of truth in face of the rack, the dungeon, and the stake. To combat these forces, Jesuitism inspired its followers with a fanaticism that enabled them to endure like dangers, and to oppose to the power of truth all the weapons of deception. There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy. When appearing as members of their order, they wore a garb of sanctity, visiting prisons and hospitals, ministering to the sick and the poor, professing to have renounced the world, and bearing the sacred name of Jesus, who went about doing good. But under this blameless exterior the most criminal and deadly purposes were often concealed. It was a fundamental principle of the order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, thefts, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of state, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations. They became servants to act as spies upon their masters. They established colleges for the sons of princes and nobles, and schools for the common people; and the children of Protestant parents were drawn into an observance of popish rites. All the outward pomp and display of the Romish worship was brought to bear to confuse the mind and dazzle and captivate the imagination, and thus the liberty for which the fathers had toiled and bled was betrayed by the sons. The Jesuits rapidly spread themselves over Europe, and wherever they went, there followed a revival of popery."

What Anthony Fauci has done, in attacking Protestant ideals, fits into the Jesuits/ papacy's hands to bring the world to its knees in obeisance to Rome!! Therefore, in the minds of Rome's hierarchy, Fauci is a wonderful man! What are the ideals of Protestantism that have come under attack through this virus? A rocket scientist is not necessary to figure this one out. The current totals of unemployed who lost good jobs to take care of their families is around 4-5 million people. A recent study from Silicon Valley is declaring that it could take upwards of 10 years to bring those jobs back!! So, while millions of people lose their jobs, the economic fabric of America sits in shambles and is being drained! Another thing that has been assaulted is the civil and religious liberties that make this nation great. Finally, half a million people have died from this virus and the numbers continue to grow. For those who want to reduce the population of the world, this fits their plan perfectly.

Let us take a look at each of these things that have been assaulted during the coronavirus affair and see how fit into Protestantism. First, millions of good jobs have been lost. Many lower and middle classed jobs have been thrown to the wind. History tells us that in the Roman Empire period, the lower classes were called the plebian sector or poor class. The plebian members of society were predominantly poor, working either for the local lord or baron or priest. After the fall of Rome, the new names given to the poor classes were peasants or serfs. Like the plebian classes, the serfs and peasants were subject to their lord or noble who controlled the land and everything else. "Before the Protestant Reformation in the 1500's, all the nations of the world were poor, much like the continent of Africa today. After the Reformation, literacy flourished, economic principles were articulated, and entire nations rose out of poverty. This produced a thriving middle class for the first time in human history." 'Understanding the Culture: A survey of Social Engagement', Jeff Myers. The Reformation brought about a flourishing middle class made of artisans, welders, printers, and the like.

Before the Reformation, all the Papal hierarchy had to do was control the king, or the baron, or the land owner. If he was controlled, then it would be easy to control the illiterate serfs and peasants. With the rise of the Reformation and the middle class, people began thinking more for themselves, independent of lords and barons, making a way for themselves and their families. The middle class made it much more difficult to control the populace because these people would think for themselves and the papacy did not want this! In order to bring the world back under Rome's sway, the middle class thinking people must be reduced and finally eliminated in Rome's plan. Coronavirus went a long way toward achieving Rome's agenda!

Civil and religious liberty was virtually an unknown commodity during the Dark Ages of Papal tyranny. "Nevertheless, in defending a gospel of salvation "by faith alone," Luther introduced a new source of authority into the bloodstream of the West. For nearly a thousand years, every European man and woman owed allegiance to two kinds of authority: political (kings, nobles, magistrates) and religious (popes, councils, bishops, or their representatives). When it came to deciding matters of faith, however, Luther found both to be deeply flawed and untrustworthy...

"With the help of the printing press, this 16th century protest against corruption in the Catholic Church would drastically change the course of Christianity – and history itself. In the process, Luther laid bare the scandal of Christendom: a political society that preserved spiritual unity through coercion and violence. Dissent from orthodoxy was outlawed; heresy was rooted out and punished by fire and sword. The papal bull of 1520 excommunicating Luther from the Catholic Church, for example, accused him of promoting 41 heresies and "pestiferous errors." One of the alleged errors was his view that "the burning of heretics is against the will of the Holy Spirit." Luther offers his fullest treatment of these issues in Secular Authority where he sharply distinguished the aims of church and state, limiting the reach of government to preserving life and property... Other reformers sought a radical separation of church and state, a concept that Luther ultimately rejected. Others went further in defending the rights of all religious believers, even heretics and non-believers, in civic and political life... In the 18th century, the United States became the first nation to enshrine in its constitution the Protestant conception of the rights of conscience. James Madison, the mind behind the First Amendment, was inspired by Luther's achievement. In a letter to F.L. Schaeffer, dated 1821, Madison explained that the American model of religious liberty "illustrates the excellence of a system which, by a due distinction, to which the genius and courage of Luther led the way, between what is due to Caesar and what is due God, best promotes the discharge of both obligations." 'National Geographic', Joseph Loconte, Ph.D., October 27, 2017

By distinguishing between duties to God and duties to man, Luther paved the way to church state separation, the inherent rights of man to civil and religious freedom, and paved the way for the grand experiment called America!! In the eyes of the Roman hierarchy, these blood bought Protestant freedoms cannot stand! Thus, we are confronted by a pandemic and the mad man of the Beltway!

What about population control? "The Georgia Guide stones are a granite monument erected in 1980 in Elbert County, Georgia, in the United States. A set of 10 guidelines is inscribed on the structure in eight modern languages and a shorter message is inscribed at the top of the structure in four ancient language scripts. The monument stands at an approximate elevation of 750 feet (230 m) above sea level, about 90 miles (140 km) east of Atlanta, 45 miles (72 km) from Athens, Georgia and 9 miles (14 km) north of the center of the city of Elberton... The anonymity of the guide stones' authors and their apparent advocacy of population control, eugenics, and internationalism have made them a target for controversy." Wikipedia The Georgia guide stones reek of Jesuit/papal globalism and population reduction. While we have seen with the coronavirus over 350,000 dead worldwide, there could be many, many more before this is all over.

Coronavirus, Anthony Fauci, job losses, destruction of civil and religious liberty, and population reduction, fit very nicely into the wicked schemes of the Jesuit/papal agenda. 'Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy.' GC, pg. 234 There is but one more piece to this puzzle and that is the reestablishment of papal supremacy. The last three popes have made very clear what the final piece will be in making the entire world Catholic. When the final piece of the puzzle will be implements, only the God of heaven knows. But what the final piece will be; well, there is no doubt.

The Coronavirus by Bill Hughes. Chapter 3. Wuhan-Catholic Connection

This is continued from Chapter 2. Conspiracy

What has been the story from day one in this coronavirus conundrum? The story has been thus, In the public mind, the origin story of coronavirus seems well fixed: in late 2019 someone at the now world-famous Huanan seafood market in Wuhan was infected with a virus from an animal. The rest is part of an awful history still in the making, with Covid-19 spreading from that first cluster in the capital of China's Hubei province to a pandemic that has killed about 350,000 people so far (to the time this article was written).

December 31-January 11, 2020

On December 31 last year, China alerted the WHO to several cases of unusual pneumonia in Wuhan, a city of 11 million people. The virus was unknown. Several of those infected worked at the city's Huanan Seafood Wholesale Market, which was shut down on January 1. As health experts worked to identify the virus amid growing alarm, the number of infections exceeded 40.

On January 5, Chinese officials ruled out the possibility that this was a recurrence of the severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) virus – an illness that originated in China and killed more than 770 people worldwide in 2002-2003.

On January 7, officials announced they had identified a new virus, according to the WHO. The novel virus was named 2019-nCoV and was identified as belonging to the coronavirus family, which includes SARS and the common cold.

On January 11, China announced its first death from the virus, a 61-year-old man who had purchased goods from the seafood market. Treatment did not improve his symptoms after he was admitted to hospital and he died of heart failure on the evening of January 9.

January 13 – 19, 2020

The WHO reported on January 13 a case in Thailand, the first outside of China, in a woman who had arrived from Wuhan.

On January 17, as a second death was reported in Wuhan, health authorities in the US announced that three airports would start screening passengers arriving from the city. Authorities in the US, Nepal, France, Australia, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Vietnam and Taiwan confirmed cases over the following days.

January 20 – 26, 2020

On January 20, China reported a third death and more than 200 infections, with cases also reported outside Hubei province including in Beijing, Shanghai and Shenzhen. Meanwhile, a Chinese expert on infectious diseases confirmed human-to-human transmission to state broadcaster CCTV, raising fears of a major outbreak as millions travelled for the Lunar New Year holiday. The cities of Wuhan, Xiantao and Chibi in Hubei province were placed under effective quarantine on January 23 as air and rail departures were suspended. By the end of the week, more areas were placed under lockdown affecting a total of 56 million people. The WHO said that the outbreak did not yet constitute a public emergency of international concern and there was "no evidence" of the virus spreading between humans outside of China.

January 27 – February 2, 2020

On January 30, the WHO declared the coronavirus a global emergency as the death toll in China jumped to 170, with 7,711 cases reported in the country, where the virus had spread to all 31 provinces. By the end of the week, China reported 304 deaths amid 14,380 infections. Within a few days, new cases were confirmed in India, Philippines, Russia, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, Germany, Japan, Singapore, the US, the UAE and Vietnam.

On February 2, the Philippines reported the first death outside China, the victim being a Chinese man from Wuhan, the capital of Hubei province where the new coronavirus was detected in late 2019.

March 23 – 29, 2020

In the US, the White House and Senate leaders of both parties struck an agreement on March 25 on a sweeping $2 trillion measure to aid workers, businesses and a healthcare system strained by pandemic. By the end of the week, the US accounted for the highest number of coronavirus infections in the world, recording more than 124,000 cases and 2,000 deaths, more than double the figure two days before. Meanwhile, as the number of cases worldwide surpassed 600,000, with more than 27,000 deaths on March 27, India and South Africa joined the countries to impose lockdowns. Kenya, Kazakhstan and Honduras reported their first deaths, while Johnson announced he had tested positive. In Europe, Spain recorded 838 new coronavirus deaths over the previous 24 hours on March 29, marking the country's highest daily jump in fatalities. The country was now second only to Italy where the death toll shot past 10,000 with 889 new deaths. (taken from Aljazeera, May 18, 2020)

The previous paragraphs make it very clear that the virus had its origins in Wuhan, China back in December. From this epicenter, the virus has now spread all over the world, killing hundreds of thousands of people and disrupting the lives of everyone on this planet. And you say, this has everything to do with Wuhan, China and NOTHING to do with the Vatican! That is very perceptive of you. Here goes.....

"Dr. Anthony Fauci, director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, warned members of the incoming Trump administration in January 2017 about the inevitability of a "surprise outbreak" of a new disease. He said at the time that the US needed to do more to prepare. "There is no question that there will be a challenge to the coming administration in the arena of infectious diseases," Fauci said during a speech at Georgetown University, adding, "The thing we're extraordinarily confident about is that we're going to see this in the next few years." Business Insider, April 13, 2020

How did Fauci know this? How did he know there would be a pandemic during the Trump administration? Isn't Fauci a doctor? He sounds more like a prophet. , "The thing we're extraordinarily confident about is that we're going to see this in the next few years." Business Insider, April 13, 2020

The following two statements shed on light on how Fauci could be so sure that a pandemic would strike during the Trump administration. "Dr. Anthony Fauci, a member of the coronavirus task force, had previously backed funding for a controversial lab in Wuhan, China, that has been studying the coronavirus in bats, reports said. Fauci's National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases had shelled out a total of $7.4 million to the Wuhan Institute of Virology lab – which has become the focus of theories about the origin of COVID-19, according to Newsweek. The National Institutes of Health, which oversees the NIAID, shut down all funding to the lab last week. "At this time, NIH does not believe that the current project outcomes align with the program goals and agency priorities," a deputy director at the agency wrote in a letter obtained by Politico. There is "increasing confidence" among officials in the Trump administration that the Wuhan Institute of Virology lab is the original site of the virus. A report by Fox News said embassy officials warned in January 2018 about inadequate safety there. The NIH defended its funding of the lab in a statement to Newsweek." April 29, 2020, New York Post.

Fauci's organization, the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, sent 7.4 million dollars to the Wuhan laboratory in China, knowing full well that they were studying the coronavirus in bats. If his organization sent 7.4 million dollars to the Wuhan lab, then obviously Fauci was backing the research to the hilt. He not only knew of the experimenting, but backed it with millions of dollars. Fauci also believes in the golden rule. The one who dishes out the dough makes the rules! If Fauci was doling out 7.4 million, would it be safe to say that, he being a medical expert in infectious disease, was also part of what went on at Wuhan? The writing on the wall says yes!! This information is shocking, tying Anthony Fauci to Wuhan and the coronavirus.

The final comment from Newsweek magazine goes even further. "Dr. Anthony Fauci is an adviser to President Donald Trump and something of an American folk hero for his steady, calm leadership during the pandemic crisis. At least one poll shows that Americans trust Fauci more than Trump on the coronavirus pandemic—and few scientists are portrayed on TV by Brad Pitt. But just last year, the National Institute for Allergy and Infectious Diseases, the organization led by Dr. Fauci, funded scientists at the Wuhan Institute of Virology and other institutions for work on gain-of-function research on bat coronaviruses. In 2019, with the backing of NIAID, the National Institutes of Health committed $3.7 million over six years for research that included some gain-of-function work. The program followed another $3.7 million, 5-year project for collecting and studying bat coronaviruses, which ended in 2019, bringing the total to $7.4 million. Many scientists have criticized gain of function research, which involves manipulating viruses in the lab to explore their potential for infecting humans, because it creates a risk of starting a pandemic from accidental release.

SARS-CoV-2, the virus now causing a global pandemic, is believed to have originated in bats. U.S. intelligence, after originally asserting that the coronavirus had occurred naturally, conceded last month that the pandemic may have originated in a leak from the Wuhan lab. (At this point most scientists say it's possible—but not likely—that the pandemic virus was engineered or manipulated.) Dr. Fauci did not respond to Newsweek's requests for comment. NIH responded with a statement that said in part: "Most emerging human viruses come from wildlife, and these represent a significant threat to public health and biosecurity in the US and globally, as demonstrated by the SARS epidemic of 2002-03, and the current COVID-19 pandemic... scientific research indicates that there is no evidence that suggests the virus was created in a laboratory. The NIH research consisted of two parts. The first part began in 2014 and involved surveillance of bat coronaviruses, and had a budget of $3.7 million. The program funded Shi Zheng-Li, a virologist at the Wuhan lab, and other researchers to investigate and catalogue bat coronaviruses in the wild. This part of the project was completed in 2019."
Newsweek, April 28, 2020

Researching viruses in laboratories is highly criticized by scientists because of the possibility of the virus being leaked and causing a pandemic. This is exactly what happened in Wuhan. Dr. Fauci's comments in 2017 would indicate that he knew that would be the case and warned it was coming!!! Was that part of his pre meditated plan to perfect a virus, pay for its research and perfection, and then have it leaked so that millions of people would die? Was Fauci already clear in his mind that once the virus was perfected in Wuhan that he would then have it released in order to infect millions? Was that why Fauci could speak with such arrogance in 2017 that a pandemic would hit the Trump administration? The three news sources that exposed this material are the Business Insider, the New York Post, and Newsweek! This material is shocking!

Why would Fauci pull such a stunt? What could possibly be his purpose or the purpose of those who control him? A little background on this reprehensible man provides the hidden clues. "His maternal grandfather, Giovanni Abys, was born in Switzerland and was an artist, noted for landscape and portrait painting, magazine illustrations (Italy) as well as graphic design for commercial labels, including olive oil cans. His grandparents emigrated from Italy to the United States in the late 19th century. Fauci grew up Catholic. Fauci attended Regis High School in Manhattan's Upper East Side, where he captained the school's basketball team and graduated in 1958. He then went to the College of the Holy Cross, graduating in 1962 with a Bachelor of Arts in classics. Fauci then attended medical school at Cornell University Medical College where he graduated first in his class with a Doctor of Medicine in 1966. He then completed an internship and residency in internal medicine at the New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, now known as New York Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medicine." So, Fauci is a devout Roman Catholic and attended the College of the Holy Cross. And what do we know about Holy Cross? Wikipedia says, "The College of the Holy Cross, or better known simply as Holy Cross, is a private Jesuit liberal arts college in Worcester, Massachusetts. Founded in 1843, Holy Cross is the oldest Catholic college in New England and one of the oldest in the United States. Opened as a school for boys under the auspices of the Society of Jesus, it was the first Jesuit College in New England. Today, Holy Cross is one of 28 member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities." Wikipedia

Fauci used his profession to carry forward the global, papal/Jesuit agenda for the world. In a forthcoming chapter, we will see clearly what that agenda is. Fauci is not a calm, sensible man, but rather a cool, calculating medical madman in the Beltway!!

The Coronavirus by Bill Hughes. Chapter 2. Conspiracy

At the United Nations on November 10, 2001, United States President George W. Bush denounced the emergence of “outrageous conspiracy theories ... that attempt to shift the blame away from the terrorists, themselves, away from the guilty.” Later, as media exposure of conspiracy theories of the events of 9/11 increased, U.S. Government agencies and the Bush Administration issued responses to the theories, including a formal analysis by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) about the collapse of the World Trade Center, a revised 2006 State Department webpage to debunk the theories, and a strategy paper referred to by President Bush in an August 2006 speech, which declared that terrorism springs from “subcultures of conspiracy and misinformation,” and that “terrorists recruit more effectively from populations whose information about the world is contaminated by falsehoods and corrupted by conspiracy theories.” Clearly, former President Bush is not happy with conspiracy theories. Since he isn't, this has set a precedent among people that the idea of conspiracy is purely a theory and that there is no basis to it. Well.....

George W. Bush attended Yale University and was a member of a Secret Society while there. The name of the Society was the Order of Skull and Bones. In order for Bush to become a member, he had to go through an initiation rite. In this rite, Bush vowed absolute obedience to three representatives. In the book, Codeword Barbelon by P. D. Stuart, it states that Bush bowed to the head of Freemasonry, the Pope, and the Jesuit General. Pages 339-341 declare this truth. Bush sold his soul to these entities and would do ANYTHING they told him to do. Any vows of loyalty to his country would mean NOTHING to a member of Skull and Bones. George Bush followed the leading of these powers while in the White House. Why would Bush speak out so forcefully against the idea of conspiracy was because he was part of a massive conspiracy?!

So, what of conspiracy? Is there really a conspiracy? Is it a theory or is it a fact? Is anyone who believes in a conspiracy a nut or is he right on the money? According to Webster's dictionary, a conspiracy is "An agreement to perform together an illegal, wrongful, or subversive act.

2. A group of conspirators.

3. An agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime or accomplish a legal purpose through illegal action.

4. A joining or acting together, as if by sinister design: a secret plan to carry out an illegal or harmful act.

5. The act of making such plans.

Conspiracy – a secret agreement between two or more people to perform an unlawful act.

So, a conspiracy is two or more people or groups united together with a sinister purpose. Well, you say, there are so many voices out there. How do I know which one to trust that will be giving an unbiased view? Those are fair comments. The only unbiased, clear book that will give us the answer is the Bible. Revelation 17 and 18 answer this question of conspiracy very clearly if we are open to hear what it says. We are immediately confronted in these chapters with a monolithic power called Babylon the Great. "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." Revelation 17:5 interestingly enough, the Protestant Reformers agreed on very little, BUT they all agreed on who Babylon the Great was. Listen to them speak.

Luther: "nothing else than the kingdom of Babylon and of very Antichrist. For who is the man of sin and the son of perdition, but he who by his teaching and his ordinances increases the sin and perdition of souls in the church; while he yet sits in the church as if he were God? All these conditions have now for many ages been fulfilled by the papal tyranny." (Martin Luther, First Principles, pp. 196-197)

Luther: "Luther ... proved, by the revelations of Daniel and St. John, by the epistles of St. Paul, St. Peter, and St. Jude, that the reign of Antichrist, predicted and described in the Bible, was the Papacy ... And all the people did say, Amen! A holy terror seized their souls. It was Antichrist whom they beheld seated on the pontifical throne. This new idea, which derived greater strength from the prophetic descriptions launched forth by Luther into the midst of his contemporaries, inflicted the most terrible blow on Rome." Taken from J. H. Merle Daubigny's History of the Reformation of the Sixteen Century, book VI, chapter xii, p. 215.

Calvin: "But to conclude this point in a few words: I deny that See to be Apostolical, wherein naught is seen but a shocking apostasy – I deny him to be the vicar of Christ, who, in furiously persecuting the gospel, demonstrates by his conduct that he is Antichrist – I deny him to be the successor of Peter, who is doing his utmost to demolish every edifice that Peter built – and I deny him to be the head of the Church, who by his tyranny lacerates and dismembers the Church, after dissevering her from Christ, her true and only Head.–Calvin, "Tracts and Letters" vol 1, 219-220.

Knox: "Yea, to speak it in plain words; lest that we submit ourselves to Satan, thinking that we submit ourselves to Jesus Christ, for, as for your Roman kirk, as it is now corrupted, and the authority thereof, whereon stands the hope of your victory, I no more doubt but that it is the synagogue of Satan, and the head thereof, called the pope, to be that man of sin, of whom the apostle speaks." (John Knox, The History of the Reformation of Religion in Scotland, p.65)

Knox: Knox wrote to abolish "that tyranny which the pope himself has for so many ages exercised over the church" and that the pope should be recognized as "the very antichrist, and son of perdition, of whom Paul speaks." Taken from "The Zurich Letters" pg. 199 by John Knox.

Wesley: "The man of sin, the son of perdition– ...in many respects, the Pope has an indisputable claim to those titles. He is, in an emphatical sense, the man of sin, as he increases all manner of sin above measure. And he is, too, properly styled, the son of perdition, as he has caused the death of numberless multitudes, both of his opposers and followers, destroyed innumerable souls, and will himself perish everlastingly. He it is that opposes himself to the emperor, once his rightful sovereign; and that exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, commanding angels, and putting kings under his feet, both of whom are called gods in scripture; claiming the highest power, the highest honor; suffering himself, not once only, to be styled God or vice-god. Indeed no less is implied in his ordinary title, "Most Holy Lord," or, "Most Holy Father." So that he sits enthroned in the temple of God – Mentioned Rev. 11:1. Declaring himself that he is God, claiming the prerogatives which belong to God alone.–Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament, p. 216)"

Roger Williams: [speaking of the Pope, Williams said]: "the pretended Vicar of Christ on earth, who sits as God over the Temple of God, exalting himself not only above all that is called God, but over the souls and consciences of all his vassals, yea over the Spirit of Christ, over the Holy Spirit, yea, and God himself...speaking against the God of heaven, thinking to change times and laws; but he is the son of perdition (II Thess. 2)." The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, by Froom, Vol. 3, pg. 52.

Westminster Confession: ""There is no other head of the church but the Lord Jesus Christ. Nor can the pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof; but is that Antichrist, that man of sin and son of perdition that exalteth himself in the church against Christ and all that is called God.” Taken from Philip Schaff’s, The Creeds of Christendom, With a History and Critical Notes, III, p. 658, 659, Ch. 25, sec. 6.

Cotton Mather: “The oracles of God foretold the rising of an Antichrist in the Christian Church: and in the Pope of Rome, all the characteristics of that Antichrist are so marvelously answered that if any who read the Scriptures do not see it, there is a marvelous blindness upon them.” Taken from The Fall of Babylon by Cotton Mather in Froom’s book, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Vol. 3, pg. 113.

All Reformers: “Wycliffe, Tyndale, Luther, Calvin, Cranmer; in the seventeenth century, Bunyan, the translators of the King James Bible and the men who published the Westminster and Baptist confessions of Faith; Sir Isaac Newton, Wesley, Whitfield, Jonathan Edwards; and more recently Spurgeon, Bishop J.C. Ryle and Dr. Martin Lloyd-Jones; these men among countless others, all saw the office of the Papacy as the antichrist.” Taken from All Roads Lead to Rome, by Michael de Semlyen. Dorchester House Publications, p. 205. 1991.

According to the Reformers of the Protestant denominations, the papal power is Babylon the Great, the Mother of harlots; she is the antichrist and the man of sin, and she is seeking to rule the world one last time! Is anyone working with her in this effort? Revelation 17:2 and 18 record for us these insightful words, “With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” Verse 18 says, “And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.” Wow! The political leaders of the world, be they dictators, prime ministers, presidents, premiers, or the like, the Bible says these political powers are puppets in the hands of the papacy! Rome herself has made this very clear in her own publications. ““Why, if the government of the United States were at war with the Church, we would say tomorrow, ‘To Hell with the government of the United States;’ and if the church and all the governments of the world were at war, we would say: ‘To Hell with all the governments of the world.’ Why it is the pope has such tremendous power? Why the pope is the ruler of the world. All the emperors, all the kings, all the princes, all the presidents of the world are as these ALTAR BOYS of mine.” Priest Phelan, Western Watchman, June 27, 1912, emphasis supplied. Pray, friend, as you never have before that political leaders would throw off the wicked shackles of Rome and stand in their God ordained positions!

Do we have a conspiracy yet? Remember, Webster’s told us that a conspiracy is ‘an agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime or accomplish a legal purpose through illegal action.’ So far, Revelation 17 and 18 have told us emphatically that we have a CONSPIRACY and that is a FACT! You can take that to the bank. Friend, you may say, “Oh, the leader of my country would never do ANYTHING bad and the Roman Catholic leadership are ALL fine men of God! How dare you say such things! I didn’t say them, Jesus did! The Lord Jesus loves you and me more than any leader or prelate. He would never lie to you! He wants to save you in His soon, coming kingdom.

Does it stop there? Is it just the papacy and the leaders of our world who are involved in a sinister plot to entrap us all in rebellion against the principles of Heaven? The Bible does not stop there. Revelation 18:11-15 declares, "And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more. The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing..."

The merchants of the earth? The Bible says the merchants are those who buy and sell every commodity known to man. Those people who sell oil and have stores all over the world and trade worldwide. These are people that tell bankers what to do. The worlds wealthy remain rich as they are willing to sell their souls to Rome/Jesuits. Revelation 18:15 is clear; the papacy rules the rich. The international bankers go as the papacy bids her. While these wealthy people are ruled over by Rome, remember, these wealthy people control the media. So, the papacy/Jesuits tell the wealthy what they want in the media and the wealthy tell the media people what to say! This is all locked together in a global conspiracy!

Now, we have three entities tied together; the Papal power/Jesuits, the political power of earth, and the wealthy. With every word comes a wider enveloping conspiracy. Are there any other partners in this heinous plan against humanity? Well, Revelation 17:5 says, "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." Well, the papacy is the Mother whore. Thus, a false church is identified as an impure woman. Then, the harlot daughters must be the churches today that are following in the footsteps of Rome! Alberto Rivera said that there aren't any mainstream churches today that have not been taken over by Rome. "All the mainstream churches were taken over by 1980. Dr. Rivera explained that when he was under the extreme oath of the Jesuits, he was told that a secret sign was to be given to the Jesuits worldwide when the ecumenical movement had successfully wiped out Protestantism, in preparation for the signing of a concordat between the Vatican and the U.S. "The sign was to be when a President of the U.S. took his oath of office facing an obelisk. For the first time in U.S. history, the swearing in ceremonies were moved to the West front of the Capitol, and President Reagan faced the Washington Monument. This happened January 20, 1981." Jack Chick, The Godfathers, Alberto Part Three, Chick Publications, page 26 Is that why all churches today are silent on declaring the papal power to be the antichrist of the Bible? Is that why all churches today are involved in ecumenical gatherings where truth is destroyed and it is all about sacrificing historic beliefs of the past? Pray for men who will stand up and declare the truth of God! "The greatest want of the world is the want of men – men who will not be bought or sold; men who in their inmost souls are true and honest; men who do not fear to call sin by its right name; men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall.” (Education, p. 57).

Now, we have four groups united together against God and His truth. The papacy/Jesuits, the political leaders, the wealthy, and the churches all together to rebel against the Lord Jesus and His truth. That is a conspiracy! Fact! There is one last thing Rome uses for her wicked purposes. “And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev. 18:24 History records for us that the papacy/Jesuits killed millions through time. Those who dared to follow the teachings of the Bible were hunted, slaughtered, split in two, and destroyed by Rome. The Inquisition was just one tool in her arsenal. However, the Bible says the papacy is responsible for killing machines that eliminate people. Killing machines like war, terror attacks; anything that leads to the deaths of millions of people rests at the footsteps of the Vatican! What about pandemics that kill millions, yeah, billions, before this thing is all over?

Are you saying that Rome/Jesuits had something to do with the current pandemic? Are you saying the papacy is behind this global tragedy that has killed hundreds of thousands of people to date? What an idiot you are; everyone knows it originated in Wuhan, China and that is the end of the story! We have been told by the media that it originated there and it did! Ah, but who was behind it? Who pushed the program in Wuhan that has caused a global tragedy? Are you ready to listen?

Chapter 1. Deception

He was right way too many times for anyone not to take what He said seriously. Every single prediction He made came to pass. It would be very serious not to heed advice He may have for those living toward the end of the world. The Man referred to is Jesus and this is His warning.

Jesus was at the end of His life and the professed people of God were plotting His life. He told them that their persistent rebellion would bring upon them destruction. Jesus said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." Matthew 23:37-39 In these tragic words, Jesus told the Jews that their temple would be destroyed. This was a most stunning thing to predict, but He had been right too many times before to not take Him very, very, seriously.

Herod's temple was a wonder of the ancient world. White marble in appearance, it had the look of being impregnable. However, Jesus said it was coming down and down it came in 70AD before the onslaught of Titus and the Romans. Among those who were most stunned by what Jesus said were His disciples. Shortly after this, Jesus reiterated what He had already said, saying, "See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying; tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" Matthew 24:2, 3

The disciples were convinced that when the temple was destroyed Jesus would come the second time to this earth. They put the two events together. However, the two events didn't happen at the same time. The temple was destroyed in 70 AD and Jesus has yet to come the second time. When answering the disciples two fold question, Jesus only gave one answer. That means that what He said applies not only to the events to take place around the destruction of the temple, but the same events would occur just before His Second Coming! That means that what Jesus said has a double application. What Jesus said had meaning for the people living around 70 AD and His words have meaning for us today!

What did Jesus tell us? Here we go, "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places." Matthew 24:4-7 Twice in those verses, Jesus told us to watch out for deception. In Matthew 24:11, we read, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." Finally, in Verse 24, Jesus said, "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Whenever Jesus wanted to stress something, He would say, "Verily, verily, I say unto you." He would repeat verily twice for emphasis. In Matthew 24, for those living at the end of earth's history, Jesus repeated a word four times, and said, "You better watch out. DECEPTION will be so thick you could cut it with a knife. Watch out what you are told! Beware!"

Now, before going any further, let us be very clear on what deception is. Webster's dictionary tells us, deception is "deceitfulness, duplicity, double-dealing, fraud, trickery". Let me illustrate this for you from an experience I had when I was in the eighth grade. My junior high school had a flag football team. On our championship team, we had one play that always scored a touchdown. The reason it was so successful was because we used deception. Let me explain briefly. The flanker would spread out wide to the right of the formation. As the quarterback, me, called the signals, he would come in motion back toward me. By the time I said three, he was close in proximity to me. I would turn, lateral the ball to him, and then my two backs, Brian and Bill, would block around the left end. We ran this play twice on first and second down.

On third down, we did the identical thing. As I started calling the signals, the flanker, Kevin, would start toward me. The other team KNEW exactly what we were going to do. They started moving toward the side of the field where they KNEW Kevin would be shortly. In fact, they started smiling at me as they moved over to the side, waiting for what would SURELY occur. Well, I pitched the ball to Kevin and we started around the end as always, EXCEPT for one thing. My speedy halfback, Brian, didn't go to block. He reversed his field, took the ball from Kevin's outer hip, and made his way down the opposite sideline where nobody was. The other team pulled Kevin's flags and was so happy with themselves, figuring they got us. All the time, Brian was running down the opposite sideline for a touchdown.

It worked to perfection. We had deceived the other team into believing that Kevin would carry it again around the corner, and while they were so happy, the real play was happening in a totally different area. The other side of the field was where things were happening and the other team didn't know that! They were deceived, faked out, and tricked! And, Jesus said this would be happening down toward the end of earth's history! He told us to watch out. While everything is being focused and centered on something, the REAL events are happening in another area of the world. Could that be happening to us today? Is the coronavirus, in which many people are tragically dying, being used today by certain powerful groups in our world to bring about their agenda? While everyone focuses on this virus, are other things happening in our world that could lead to terrible results for everyone on this planet?

Jesus told us, "Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." Matthew 24:4, 5 He has been right too many times to not take what He says very, very, seriously. Now, let's weigh something for a moment. Where do we receive most of our information today? What mechanisms are used to communicate to people in the timeliest manner and to reach the most people at once? Clearly, the media is what is used very effectively to communicate to the populace. We get the great bulk of our messages of communication from the television, the radio, newspapers, magazines, and the internet. Is it possible that the media we are listening to is controlled by powerful people behind the scenes? Is it possible that these power groups are dictating what people are told in order to help the masses embrace an agenda? You know, I grew up on Walter Cronkite and David Brinkley and thought they were the finest of men. I'm sure many of us feel the same about David Muir, Katie Couric, George Stephanopoulos and Diane Sawyer today.

With Jesus' warning ringing in our ears and the undeniable fact that media is the way we receive messages today, a statement by John Swinton hits us square between the eyes. Swinton was a preeminent journalist over a century ago. Swinton declared at a press club dinner in his honor, "There is no such thing, at this date of the world's history, in America, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares to write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know beforehand that it would never appear in print. I am paid weekly for keeping my honest opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for similar things, and any of you who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the streets looking for another job. If I allowed my honest opinions to appear in one issue of my paper, before twenty-four hours my occupation would be gone. The business of the journalists is to destroy the truth, to lie outright, to pervert, to vilify, to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread. You know it and I know it, and what folly is this toasting an independent press? We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes." (Source: Labor's Untold Story, by Richard O. Boyer and Herbert M. Morais, published by United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, NY, 1955/1979.)

The quote raises the issue of whether there is not continuing truth in Swinton's remarks, and whether some candid journalist might not be able to fairly say similar things today. Anyone who has associated closely with journalists can hardly avoid finding a ring of truth in such words, and the best evidence lies in the actual product of journalists and how well, or how poorly, it both agrees with and covers what actually happens, especially involving such things as corruption and abuse of power. Swinton declared that journalists are the tools of rich men behind the scenes. The journalists are puppets in the hands of the wealthy that control them. In order to save their job, the journalist or anchor will readily lie, deceive (there is that word), say whatever they are told in order to guide people down the path of their handlers-the wealthy of the world! Just one example of this would be the control of media by one Rupert Murdoch. His holdings over the media of this world are staggering.

So, does the world's wealthy have an agenda for the populace of this world? Are they using their wealth and power to communicate to this planet what they want them to know about this virus in order to carry out their agenda for this world? Are their powers above the wealthy people of the world who also have global agendas and the coronavirus is part of finalizing their plans? Does this sound like a conspiracy to you? People shy away from conspiracy today, poo pooing it as conspiracy theorists. Probably just some cuckoo heads. We will look at this in our next chapter. Jesus warned us about deception. I hope we are listening.
