

The Antichrist: His Portrait and History – Chapter II. True Meaning Of The Term.

According to the Bible, which of the below is the Antichrist likely to look like?

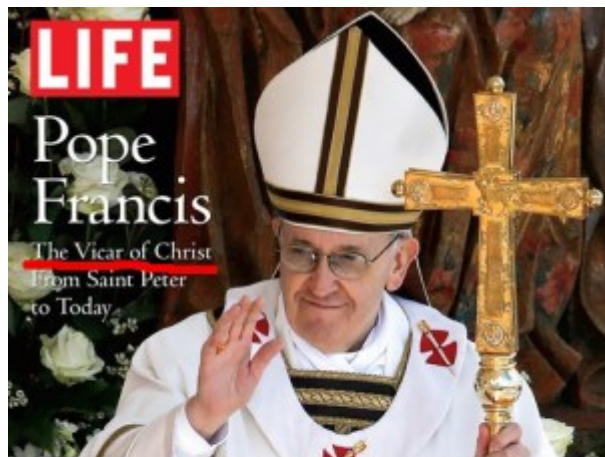

The Antichrist of prophecy is a false Christian, a veiled enemy of Christ, of heathen gentile origin, and not a Jew.

The Two Babylons II. Section II.–Sub-Section IV.–The Death of the Child

As the women of Egypt wept for Osiris, as the Phoenician and Assyrian women wept for Tammuz, so in Greece and Rome the women wept for Bacchus. They are all the same person!

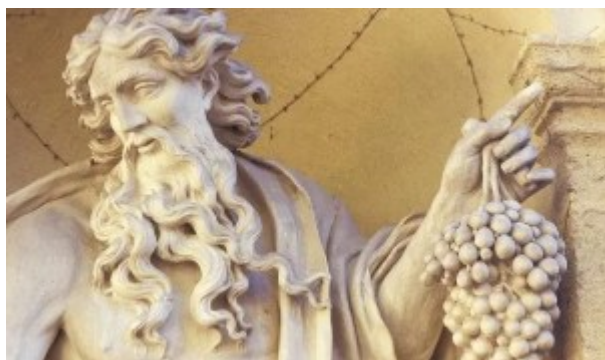

The Antichrist: His Portrait and History – Chapter I. Meaning of the Term

Vicar: (From Latin) vicarius, a substitute,
Anti: (From Greek) against, opposite, instead of,
Vicar of Christ = Anti Christ

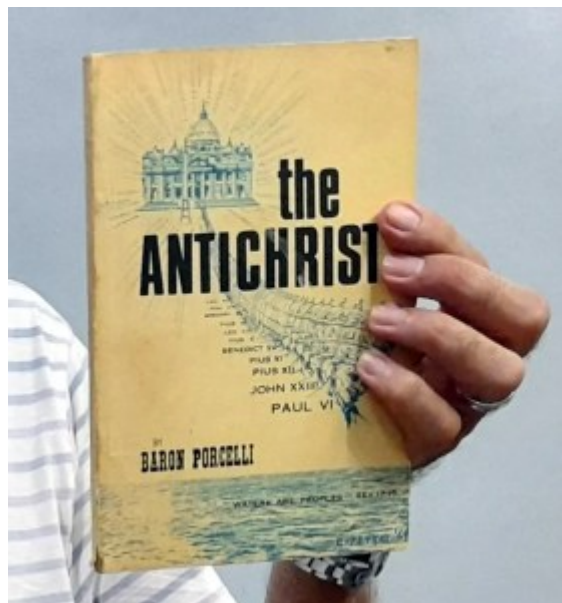

The true meaning of Antichrist, not an all powerful superman, but a liar and a deceiver who claims to be the head of the Church when Jesus Christ in Heaven is the ONLY head of the Church!

The Two Babylons II. Section II.–Sub-Section III. The Child in Greece

The god worshiped as a child in the arms of the great Mother in Greece, under the names of Dionysus, or Bacchus.

The Antichrist: His Portrait and History by Baron Porcelli

The Antichrist is not just an End-time personage only, he's been with us in every pope of at least the past 12 centuries.

The Two Babylons II. Section II.—Sub-Section II. The Child in Egypt

The gods of Egypt linked to the gods of Babylon which Nimrod instituted in rebellion to God the Creator.

The Two Babylons II. Section II.–The Mother and Child. Sub-Section I – The Child in Assyria

Nimrod and Semiramis

- When the Tower of Babel came down, the worship of these two spread.
- In Egypt the two were called Osiris and Isis.
- Assyria – Assur and Ishtar.
- Babylon – Bel and Belit.
- Persia – Mithra and Anahita.
- Greece – Helios and Artemis.
- Rome – Apollo and Diana.
- Throughout the bible they are referred to as Baal and Ashteroth. In Acts 7:43, they're called Moloch and Remphan.

In Papal Italy all appearance of worshipping the Godhead is almost extinct, while the Mother and the Child are the grand objects of worship. Exactly so was it in Ancient Babylon.

The Two Babylons Chapter II. Objects of Worship

The ancient Mysteries of Egypt, Greece, Phoenicia, and Rome are all united in Babylonian character.

The Two Babylons Chapter I. Distinctive Character of the Two Systems.

The Chaldean Mysteries can be traced up to the days of Semiramis, who lived only a few centuries after the flood, and who is known to have impressed upon them the image of her own depraved and polluted mind.

Our Priceless Heritage – Summary

Summary of all the differences between the Roman Catholic Church and true Protestantism which is nothing more than the doctrines and practices of the Apostles.

The Future State, Purgatory, and Masses for the Dead

The Papal hierarchy love money, and the fear of purgatorial torment is a great source of revenue. Belief in purgatory is the false foundation of Masses for the dead.

Confession of Sin, Penance, and Indulgences

Indulgences have been a source of enormous revenue to the Vatican; by appealing to the superstitious fears of their people, high and low, the popes have filled their coffers with gold.

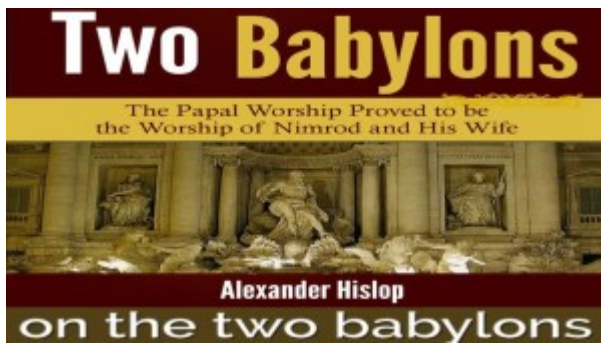

Pope Francis' Inverted Version of Christianity

Pope Francis says that we must not judge so-called “pedosexuals” who are sexually attracted to children until we have walked a mile in their shoes.

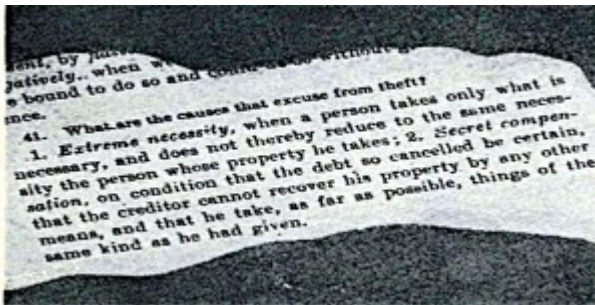

The Two Babylons – by Alexander

Hislop. Introduction

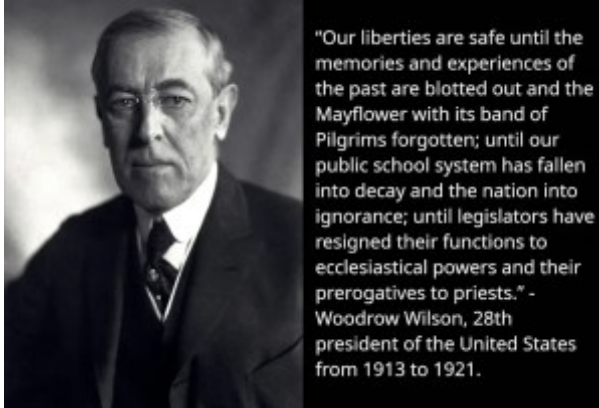

Rome is in very deed the Babylon of the Apocalypse; that the essential character of her system, the grand objects of her worship, her festivals, her doctrine and discipline, her rites and ceremonies, her priesthood and their orders, have all been derived from ancient Babylon.

Catholic Education and Crime

Roman Catholic moral theology condones theft and robbery under certain circumstances.

The Catholic Axis – Catholic Support for Fascist Nations During World War II.

"Our liberties are safe until the memories and experiences of the past are blotted out and the Mayflower with its band of Pilgrims forgotten; until our public school system has fallen into decay and the nation into ignorance; until legislators have resigned their functions to ecclesiastical powers and their prerogatives to priests." - Woodrow Wilson, 28th president of the United States from 1913 to 1921.

The Aims of Fascism are most deeply in conflict with those of a free republic like that of the United States. In this effort, the Catholic Church has been plainly no conservator of tradition; it has been an ally—a potent ally—of the forces of destruction.”
