

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part III. Chapter II. The Man of Sin, or Antichrist.

Part 1.

A great fourfold prophecy of fundamental importance (Dan. vii. 7-27; rev. xiii. 1-9; Rev. xvii; 2 Thess, ii).— The Roman power.—Its last form as predicted here. Individual and dynastic use of the word “king,”— An apostate, blasphemous, and persecuting power,— Exactly answering to the one here predicted, has been in existence for more than twelve centuries, in the succession of the popes of Rome.—Its idolatries. Its dominion.—Its persecution of the saints,—Its duration.—Its doom.

Notes On Revelation Chapter Eighteen

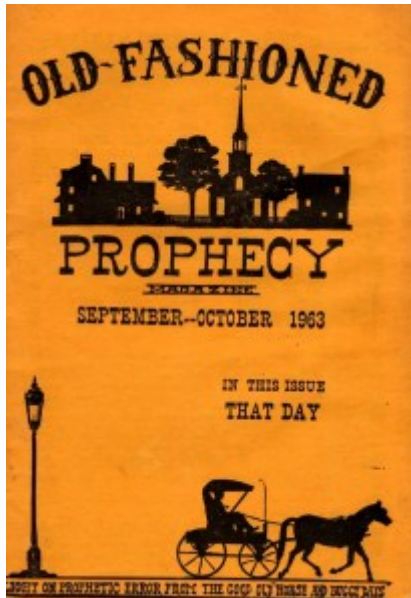

Martin Luther, before his conversion, was a good Romanist; from his conversion up to his discovery that the Pope was Antichrist, he was a Christian and a Romanist; from that date on, he was a good Christian but not a Romanist at all.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part III. Foretold and Fulfilled. Chapter I.

We have been contemplating the two mysteries of the Apocalypse. The word “mystery” signifies something spiritual; it here describes a church, The first mystery is explained to us by Christ Himself: “The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest; the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.” The second mystery is explained also: “I will tell thee the mystery of the woman. The woman is that great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth.”

That Day – By Eric C. Peters

An exposition about what the “day of the Lord” is all about.”

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part II. Progressive interpretation. Chapter III.

The Apocalypse is a continuous prophecy extending from its own time, to the consummation of all things.—Importance of historical knowledge, in order to its correct interpretation.—It is a prophecy concerning the experiences of the Christian church, in the world, and not concerning those of the Jewish nation.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part II.

Progressive interpretation. Chapter II.

A solid red rectangular box used for redaction.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan
Guinness – Part II. Progressive
interpretation.

Consideration of certain broad principles, on which the Apocalypse is to be interpreted.—It is a symbolic prophecy, and must be translated into ordinary language before it can be understood.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part II.

Progressive interpretation. Chapter I.

A solid red rectangular box used for redaction.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan
Guinness – Part II. Progressive
interpretation.

Human comprehension of divine prophecy has been, and was intended to be, progressive.—Three important inferences from Daniel xii. 9.—There is a blameless and a guilty ignorance of the fulfilment of prophecy.—Instances of each.—Reasons for a partial and temporary obscurity of prophecy; and means by which progressive comprehension of its signification has been granted.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part I. Chapter III.

Progressive revelations as to the millennium, the resurrection, and the judgment.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part I. Chapter II.

Progressive Revelations as to the Relative Period of the Second Advent of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Part I. Progressive Revelation Chapter I

God's revelation of Himself to man has been a progressive one.—Truth in general has been revealed progressively.—Prophecy, the divine history of the future, consists of a series of progressive revelations.—Practical results of the comprehension and application of this principle.

The Approaching End of the Age by H. Grattan Guinness – Introduction

The volume now presented to the Christian public, consists as will be observed, of four parts: the first is commended to the candid consideration of those who have not yet received the truth of the premillennial advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, the second and third take that truth as proved and granted, and address themselves especially to those who, holding premillennial views, are still looking for the manifestation of Antichrist, prior to the visible advent of Christ, those who adopt a literal interpretation of the Apocalyptic prophecies, including their chronological features—in other words, to the futurist school of prophetic interpreters.

The Prophetic Outlook Today – The Vial Poured Out Upon The Air; And The Three Unclean Spirits Like Frogs

The Dragon is that old serpent the Devil. The Beast, or rather the Beast's Eighth Ruling Head, is the succession of the Popes of Rome. The False Prophet represents the Priesthood.

The Prophetic Outlook Today – The Second Advent Order of Events

The full settlement of our Lord's Kingdom on the earth, even after His glorious appearing, may be—nay, must be—a work of some time. We are not told what interval will elapse between the destruction of His foes by His actual appearing and the firm establishment and organisation of His Kingdom, but for this it is reasonable to allow some space of time.

The Grand Design Exposed Chapter 17

Two Occult Powers United For Final World Control

The Church of Rome, as usual, has taught her people a deception – not, that the “catastrophe” that is about to fall upon the earth is the works of their own evil hands, but instead, it is taught that it will be the result of a prophecy of the Virgin Mary that has brought mankind under condemnation due to their refusal to worship according to Rome.

The Divine Programme of The World's History Chapter VII. The Christian Programme – Part V. The Apocalyptic Section of the Programme

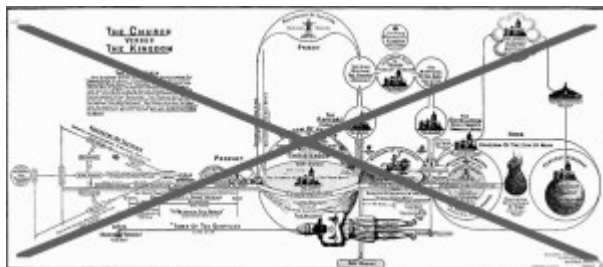

This last book of the Bible consists almost entirely of an apocalypse of the future; that is, of what was future in the days when Domitian was reigning in Rome, and John suffering under his cruel tyranny in the lonely island of Patmos.

Science the New Religion

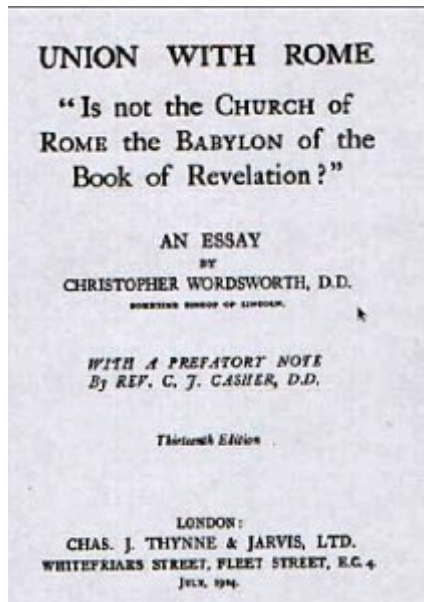

Science has become the new religion. Those who dare challenge the dictates of “science” are often declared crackpots, pseudo-scientists, or just plain crazy.

Dispensationalism and Its Influence on Eschatology

Most Christians today don't know what Dispensationalism means in spite of the fact all their popular views about the Endtime, Israel, the rapture and the Antichrist have been influenced by the doctrines that sprang from it!

Union with Rome – Christopher Wordsworth

Is not the Church of Rome the Babylon of the Book of Revelation? 19th-century Bible scholar Christopher Wordsworth offers infallible proof from Holy Scripture and secular history.

The Pope – Chief of White Slavers, High Priest of Intrigue

Former Catholic priest Jeremiah J. Crowley exposes the Popes of Rome as evil tyrants whose interest is only money and power over as much of the world as possible.

The Seventh Vial Chapter XXIX. Harpers By The Sea Of Glass

When the angels began to pour out their vials, the harpers began their song, and they continued to sing during the whole period of the vials, filling up the pauses of the storm with their melody, which might be heard at times mingling with its thunders. They are described as they who had gotten the victory, or, more literally, are getting the victory, over the beast, which marks them out as the Protestant remnant, who, having escaped the pollutions of Popery, are now preserved by God from its plagues.