

The Two Babylons Chapter VI. Religious Orders.

The Church of Rome, at its first planting, had the divinely bestowed gift of a Scriptural ministry and government; and then "its faith was spoken of throughout the whole world"; its works of righteousness were both rich and abundant. But, in an evil hour, the Babylonian element was admitted into its ministry, and thenceforth, that which had been intended as a blessing, was converted into a curse. Since then, instead of sanctifying men, it has only been the means of demoralising them, and making them "twofold more the children of hell" than they would have been had they been left simply to themselves.

The Two Babylons Chapter V. Section IV – The Rosary and the Worship of the Sacred Heart

Catholics use the rosary but it's no invention of the Papacy. The rosary is of the highest antiquity, and almost universally found among Pagan nations.

The Two Babylons Chapter V. Rites And Ceremonies

In the sculptures of Nineveh idols, borne on men's shoulders, are forcibly represented, and show the real origin of the Popish processions.
