

Roman Catholicism By Lorraine Boettner

Section Three Chapter XI The Infallibility of the Pope

The doctrine of papal infallibility appeals to many people who are poorly informed. They know practically nothing about the Bible. Consequently, they have no sound theology on which to base their actions.

The Canonization of Joan of Arc; or, Rome's Duplicity

Roman Catholic Church condemned Joan of Arc to death, burned her alive at the stake, and then canonizing her as a saint 488 years later! Talk about duplicity!
