

The Two Babylons Chapter III. Festivals. Section III – The Nativity of St. John

The Feast of the Nativity of St. John is set down in the Papal calendar for the 24th of June, or Midsummer-day. The very same period was equally memorable in the Babylonian calendar as that of one of its most celebrated festivals.

The Two Babylons Chapter III. Festivals. Section I.–Christmas and Lady-Day.

There is not a word in the Scriptures about the precise day of the birth of Jesus Christ, or the time of the year when he was born.

The Two Babylons II. Section II.—Sub-Section IV.—The Death of the Child

As the women of Egypt wept for Osiris, as the Phoenician and Assyrian women wept for Tammuz, so in Greece and Rome the women wept for Bacchus. They are all the same person!
