

Why We Must Put Our Trust In Jesus Alone And Not Invoke Mary – by Charles Chiniquy

The dialogue between Jesus dying on the Cross and the repenting sinner, is the most touching summary of the design of the mission of Jesus Christ upon earth, as it is the measure of the unlimited confidence that the penitent sinner ought to place in the mercy of the Saviour.