

The Two Babylons Chapter V. Section II – Relic Worship

Nothing is more characteristic of Rome than the worship of relics. Wherever a chapel is opened, or a temple consecrated, it cannot be thoroughly complete without some relic or other of he-saint or she-saint to give sanctity to it. The relics of the saints and rotten bones of the martyrs form a great part of the wealth of the Church.

Pilgrimages, Incense, “Holy Water,” Rosaries, Relics, Etc.

Roman Catholic pilgrimages, Incense, Holy Water, Rosaries, Relics, scapulars, etc. are all from pagan religions such Hinduism and Buddhism. They oppose the true Gospel.
