

The Sacraments Part II

The Roman dogmas of the Eucharist was a medieval superstition, intended to impress ignorant people and greatly increase the power of the clergy, by making the priest appear to have miraculous power, and the people practically dependent on them for salvation.

The Sacraments Part I

The sacraments instituted by Christ are baptism and the Lord's supper only. The Church of Rome made seven sacraments in order that it might completely control its people by making them absolutely dependent on the clergy.
