

The Two Babylons – Conclusion

Most seem to think that Popery is a system merely to be scouted and laughed at; but the Spirit of God everywhere characterises it in quite a different way. Every statement in the Scripture shows that it was truly described when it was characterised as “Satan’s Masterpiece”—the perfection of his policy for deluding and ensnaring the world.

The Two Babylons Chapter VII. The Two Developments Historically and Prophetically Considered

The idolatrous system of the ancient Babylon assumed different phases in different periods of its history. In the prophetic description of the modern Babylon, there is evidently also a development of different powers at different times.

The Two Babylons Chapter II. Section III.—The Mother of the Child

While the mother derived her glory in the first instance from the divine character attributed to the child in her arms, the mother in the long-run practically eclipsed the son. At first, in all likelihood, there would be no thought whatever of ascribing divinity to the mother.

The Two Babylons II. Section II.—Sub-Section IV.—The Death of the Child

As the women of Egypt wept for Osiris, as the Phoenician and Assyrian women wept for Tammuz, so in Greece and Rome the women wept for Bacchus. They are all the same person!

The Two Babylons II. Section II.–The Mother and Child. Sub-Section I – The Child in Assyria

Nimrod and Semiramis

- When the Tower of Babel came down, the worship of these two spread.
- In Egypt the two were called Osiris and Isis.
- Assyria – Assur and Ishtar.
- Babylon – Bel and Belit.
- Persia – Mithra and Anahita.
- Greece – Helios and Artemis.
- Rome – Apollo and Diana.
- Throughout the bible they are referred to as Baal and Ashteroth. In Acts 7:43, they're called Moloch and Remphan.

In Papal Italy all appearance of worshipping the Godhead is almost extinct, while the Mother and the Child are the grand objects of worship. Exactly so was it in Ancient Babylon.

Daniel Chapter 2 – An Outline of 2500 Years of World History!

Daniel chapter two is a prophecy of four empires of world history, and three of these empires, the Medo-Persian, Greek and Roman empire hadn't happened yet!
