

The Navy's Negative Reaction To Bill Cooper Reporting a UAP

This is an account of Bill Cooper's experience in the Navy seeing what he called a flying saucer while on the USS Tiru, a Balao-class submarine. The interesting part of Cooper's testimony is not especially what he and two others saw, but the Navy's negative reaction to it!

Serge Monast and Project Blue Beam

What Serge Monast has to say about a fake rapture and fake alien invasion to deceive the world and to lead it to a new world order.
